APPLICATION FOR BURSARY & SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

The Okanagan School of the Arts, through the generous donations of past and present supporters, is able to provide financial assistance through OSA Scholarship/Bursary Funds, to those students who show high levels of aptitude and who seek to further develop their skills in a specific area of the arts. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of achievement and ability. Bursaries are awarded on the basis of financial need and ability. Assistance through OSA Scholarship or Bursary funds will normally cover to a maximum of 50% of the instruction fees for a course.

These funds are received from a variety of sources including: OSA budget allocation; The Irene & Harold Myers Fund; Parent Advisory Councils in School District 67, Okanagan Skaha; Service Organizations.

Special recognition is also given through these named scholarships:

- John Coe Memorial for Visual Arts
- Robin Costain Memorial provided by Lee Morrison for All Arts
- Madame Johanna Janisch Memorial for Music/Voice
- Blaine Johnson Memorial for Youth/Performance Arts
- B. Thorpe Memorial for All Arts
- Joe Winklaar Memorial for All Arts

The Bursary/Scholarship committee of the OSA board of directors is always open to new funding ideas and opportunities. Please contact us: 250-493-0390 or info@osarts.com with your ideas and support.
